THE LAKE GEORGE JUNIOR CLASS

PRESENTS

M*A*S*H

DIRECTED BY MICHAEL LUCE

Our Junior Class play M*A*S*H is a dramatization taken from Richard Hooker's book of the same title, dramatized by Tim Kelly, though we borrowed the character "KLINGER" from the T.V. series. The popularity of the book led to a screen play movie version (starring Donald Sutherland and Elliott Gould) and our stage adaptation, as well as the T.V. series.

This year's Junior Class has gathered one of the largest Junior Play cast groups ever to take the stage for their rendition of M*A*S*H.

WE HOPE YOU ENJOY IT!!!

Camp couple

Capt. Frank Burns, played by Gary Chase, and Maj. "Hot Lips" Houlihan, played by Pam Krueger, enjoy a moment together in the Lake George High School Junior Class production of *M*A*S*H*. Performances are scheduled at 8 Thursday and Friday in the high school gym.

Students offer wartime spoof

LAKE GEORGE — For the last five weeks, 45 Lake George High School juniors have been rehearsing their production of Richard Hooker's "*M*A*S*H*."

This play has been modeled after the TV series "*M*A*S*H*" which is a spoof of the Mobile Army Surgical Hospital of the Korean War.

All the characters from the TV series are portrayed. Lt. Col. Blake, played by Bill Witherbee; camp commander Col. Frank Burns, played by Gary Chase, and Hot Lips Houlihan, played by Pam Krueger.

Radar O'Reilly, played by Glen Bruening, still has his gift of extra-sensitive hearing. Duke, played by Peter Murphy; Hawkeye, played by Todd Robinson, and Trapper, played by Eddie Reichback, are cutting up the camp as usual, and Klinger is at his very best.

Show time is at 8 Thursday and Friday in the Lake George High School gym. The show is under the direction of faculty advisor Michael Luce.
